

Overview:

We are excited to announce the addition of our new personal training program for the Student Recreation Center! This program is designed to help you achieve your fitness goals, regardless of ability or fitness level. Our certified personal trainers are here to help you learn and guide you through how to achieve your goals, including strength training, improving your cardiovascular ability, weight loss, and overall fitness and wellness.