b. Executive Actions

1. February 8, 2010 memorandum from Dean Diane Jackman, College of Education and Professional Studies, requesting the following changes effective Fall 2010:

Requested Change: to revise the course titles for ELE 5640, ELE 5650, and ELE 5660

ELE 5640 - Teaching and Supervision of Social Studies in Elementary and Middle Schools.

(3-0-3) A study of objectives, content, materials, and strategies in organizing, supervising, and improving social studies programs.

Credits: 3

ELE 5650 - Language Arts in the Elementary and Middle School.

(3-0-3) A critical analysis of language arts instruction with emphasis on the organization of the program, content, materials, and procedures.

Prerequisites & Notes

Eight semester hours in education and psychology.

Credits: 3

ELE 5660 - Science Curriculum in the Elementary and Middle School.

(3-0-3) Scope and sequence of the elementary and middle level science curriculum; new experimental curricula; selection of materials and equipment.

Prerequisites & Notes

Six semester hours of science; ELE 3290 or permission of the department chair.

Credits: 3

Rationale for Change: These changes are being requested to ensure that program courses shall be titled and described to include the program options of all students intending to enroll in the courses, and for whom the course syllabus is designed, more specifically, to include Middle School. This more accurately describes what we are doing and does not change course content in any way. In 2008 we made this same request for our undergraduate courses and are now looking to align our graduate coursework.

3. February 8, 2010 memorandum from Dean Diane Hoadley, Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences, requesting the following changes effective Fall 2010:
Proposal for MS in Family and Consumer Sciences mission statement:
Action Requested: This executive action request is to note that the MS in Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) mission statement has been reviewed, revised and approved for use by the graduate faculty of FCS. FCS would like to post the new mission statement on the FCS web page and in the graduate school catalog, as well as use it in various recruitment brochures. The mission statement reads:

The School of Family and Consumer Sciences' graduate program prepares students through teaching and experiential learning, research and theoretical application to improve our diverse, global society. The integrative perspective of family and consumer sciences provides a foundation to prepare uniquely qualified professionals for leadership positions by advancing critical thinking, reflective practice, knowledge, and communication skills.

Current Catalog Copy: Mission Statement is not posted in the current graduate catalog.

Proposed Catalog Copy: Post the mission statement in the graduate catalog following "The Purpose of Programs" section. Below is the proposed catalog copy, with edits marked in red.
