

Sexual Violence Prevention Team

Agenda

April 24, 2015

- I. Introductions
- II. Recap of the month:
 - a. Campaigns: Red Flag Campaign & It's On Us
 - i. Both campaigns went very well. Due to weather we were unable to do Red Flag the entire time. The It's On Us campaign was well received by students on campus.
 - b. Sexual Violence Talk Show with Theater Arts Department
 - i. There was a good turnout for the talk show! There are some changes that need to be made, however, we were happy to the performances by the students and professor. We plan on doing again in the fall semester. Suggestions were made by the team to engage the audience and have different scenarios at the end to discuss.
 - c. Molly McLay- Student Government
 - i. Team members felt Molly McLay was well received by students and had a good turnout.
 - d. SACIS & HOPE events
 - i. Overall events seemed to go well this year.
- III. Haven: Sexual assault online training through Everfi
 - a. Required for ALL incoming new students.
- IV. Plans for summer:
 - a. Website Advisory Committee:
 - i. The group is currently working on reviewing the website and providing feedback on changes/updates. The feedback will then be given to Dr. Nadler.
 - b. It's On Us:
 - i. How to continue using this campaign next year.
 - ii. Where can we include the video to be visual on campus? The team talked about reaching out to Chad Franks for Housing and continue putting on the message boards.
 - c. Bystander Intervention Training
 - i. Offering open sessions in the fall to faculty/staff.
 - ii. The HERC is going to work with faculty to get in classrooms, RSOs, etc.
 - d. Opening Night Safety Program - work on layout and presenters in the early summer
 - e. Speakers (on-campus researchers)?
 - f. What else do we need to work on? The group discussed plans for the summer and preparing for the fall semester. There was also a discussion regarding the Be the One Campaign and how it can be incorporated in materials that are already made.
