

Sexual Violence Prevention Team
Meeting Minutes
September 15, 2021 (Zoom)

- I. In Attendance: Lindsay Wilson (Counseling Clinic), Jenny Sipes (VPSA), Sarah Jacobs (Housing), Becky Ogle (Medical Clinic), Marjorie Worthington (Faculty, Women's Gender & Sexuality Studies), Alyssa Cravens (Victim Awareness Campaign Specialist, SACIS), David Chayer (Executive Director, SACIS), Kim White (Advocate, SACIS), and Amanda Feder (Director of Prevention Services, SACIS).
- II. Areas that the team wants to try to get representation from, were discussed. Student body government, Health Studies (faculty and/or student representation), athletics. Jenny agreed to reach out to see who we could invite from SBG. Lindsay will reach out for representation from Health. We discussed making sure that this day and time will typically work for the areas that are absent from the meeting today.
- III. Members were encouraged to look at the SVPT website to see if any updates or edits need to be made. Amanda Feder brought up a question surrounding reporting of grievances. She inquired whether or not the university had a process to file a grievance, if a student felt there was some kind of mishandling during the reporting process; differentiating this from the appeals process that can be taken if a student disagrees with the conclusion of a hearing process.
- IV. Outreach 2021-2022 ideas were discussed. Amanda Feder brought up working to provide students with more ongoing, consistent prevention and education (versus a one time presentation), such as with Athletics and Greek Life. Using social media platforms was discussed, such as EIU's platforms, but also athletics, Greek life, etc. There are various groups and/or departments on campus that are trying to bring Ashley Flowers to campus (Crime Junkies podcast) in Spring Semester.
